

Building the Education Revolution

Work has commenced on our new library as part of the Federal Government's Building the Education Revolution program. Under this program the school will receive a new library and a multi-purpose hall. You can download copies of the site plan and floor plans of both buildings using the links below. You can also follow the progress of both buildings in the gallery section of this website.

Site Plan

Library Floor Plan

Multi-purpose Hall Floor Plan